The Unknown Perpetrators of the Dual Escape Before the Crime Is Discovered.

A Reward of $2,000 Offered for Their Detection—Details of the Sincere Affair.

QUEENS, L. I., Aug. 28.—[Special Dispatch to The Tribune.] Queens has been in a ferment of excitement today over the double murder of last night when Officers Patrick O. Sullivan and Joseph A. Elmore of the village police force, both in the prime, perhaps, of their lives, were shot down in cold blood by unknown assassins. The murderers, or murderer, have not been found. A heavy reward, also, has been offered, and a thorough search made for the murderer, but no trustworthy clew has been found. A heavy number of the citizens, too, have assembled with the intention, further pursuit or not, of lynching the murderer, but the authorities, fearing the crowd may have fallen into the hands of the wrong parties, are not inclined to favor any of the lynch rules. A mystery has been thrown around the affair which will be very difficult to penetrate, and it is possible that the murderers are the longest outlaws but an ordinary crime has been known of. Night before last there was a shooting affray in the village, in which several persons were implicated, but the injuries received in that case have terminated, but the injuries received in that case have terminated, but the injuries received in that case have termin

THE REVENUE LAWS.

List of the Gentlemen Selected by Gov. Cullom for This Service.

Twenty-five Good and True, Headed by the Hon. Milton Hay of Springfield.

Six Dollars Per Day for Ninety Days the Compensation—Five from the State Capital.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Aug. 28.—[Special.] Springfield seems destined to be a favorite place for the meeting of the commissioners to revise the revenue laws of the State as provided for by the act of the Thirty-fourth General Assembly. The commissioners will be in session for the next ninety days, and the prospect is that the sessions will be held here. In the first place, the law requires that the commissioners shall meet at the Executive Chamber, immediately after the adjournment of the Legislature, and as the Governor resides in Springfield, and as the Governor has the appointment or selection of the commissioners, and as the Governor is expected to select, from each Congressional district, one commissioner who shall reside in that district, it is probable that the commissioners will be selected from the cities of Springfield, Quincy, Peoria, Bloomington, Chicago, Galena, Rockford, Freeport, Rockford, Ottawa, Mount Carroll, Mount Vernon, Carbondale, Shawneetown, Cairo, Belleville, Pinckneyville, Danville, Paris, Lawrenceville, Mattoon, Effingham, Vandalia, Carlinville, Jacksonville, Beardstown, Pittsfield, Rushville, Macomb, Monmouth, Knoxville, Galesburg, Kewanee, Princeton, La Salle, Ottawa, Chicago, and Chicago. Of the twenty-five commissioners, it is probable that fifteen will be residents of Springfield, Quincy, Peoria, Bloomington, Chicago, Galena, Rockford, Freeport, Rockford, Ottawa, Mount Carroll, Mount Vernon, Carbondale, Shawneetown, Cairo, Belleville, Pinckneyville, Danville, Paris, Lawrenceville, Mattoon, Effingham, Vandalia, Carlinville, Jacksonville, Beardstown, Pittsfield, Rushville, Macomb, Monmouth, Knoxville, Galesburg, Kewanee, Princeton, La Salle, Ottawa, Chicago, and Chicago.

The Hon. Milton Hay, who probably stands at the head of the list of commissioners, is one of the most distinguished lawyers in the State. He was formerly a member of the Supreme Court from this district, and was a candidate for re-election, but was defeated by the Democratic candidate, Judge Scholfield, of Mount Carroll. He is a nephew of the late President Lincoln, and was his private secretary during the latter's administration. He is a man of large means, and is a gentleman of fine culture and refinement. He is a member of the Union League Club of Chicago, and has been prominently mentioned for the Governorship.

Richard Yates, a Democrat, the son of the late Governor Yates, is also from Chicago, but is not mentioned for the Senate.

Judge B. S. Morris is a prominent attorney, and was defeated for Congress in the district by Black in 1872.

E. A. Gale, a Republican, is an old and experienced attorney of Chicago. He was for several years Chairman of the Board of Supervisors of his county, and is well qualified for revenue duties.

Judge William Kent, a Democrat, is a prominent lawyer and was circuit judge of his district.

Norman Williams is a Democrat and a leading Chicago lawyer.

E. S. Dunlevy, a Republican, is well known as a lawyer and politician. He was a member of Congress from the Ninth District of Illinois, and is a resident of Shawneetown.

Benjamin S. Edwards, a Democrat, has served two terms in the State Senate.

Charles B. Farwell, a Republican, was a member of Congress from the Chicago district, and was defeated by Hon. Thomas J. Turner, Democrat.

E. C. Ingersoll, a Democrat, was defeated for Congress in the Ottawa district by Hon. Charles B. Farwell, Republican.

Richard Yates, Springfield; Richard Yates, Chicago; E. S. Dunlevy, Shawneetown; Benjamin S. Edwards, Shawneetown; Charles B. Farwell, Chicago; E. C. Ingersoll, Ottawa; E. A. Gale, Chicago; Norman Williams, Chicago; B. S. Morris, Galesburg; William Kent, Chicago; Milton Hay, Springfield; Richard Yates, Springfield; E. C. Ingersoll, Ottawa; Benjamin S. Edwards, Shawneetown; Charles B. Farwell, Chicago; E. A. Gale, Chicago; Norman Williams, Chicago; B. S. Morris, Galesburg; William Kent, Chicago; Milton Hay, Springfield.

Knights of Labor Take Possession of a Railroad in the South.

They Demand Their Wages Before Handing the Road Over but Passenger Trains Running.

Efforts at Galveston Said to Indicate to Improve an Outbreak—The Strikers in Texas.

GALVESTON, Tex., Aug. 28.—[Special.]—The Knights of Labor tonight have virtual control of the road, thereby a battle for having throughout its entire length. All freight traffic is virtually suspended, and some local passenger trains will be allowed to pass over the line until an adjustment is reached between the company and the strikers. The strikers are entirely free and unmolested in their movements, and the company have been allowed to depart from this point, and no further danger of the Knights seizing other property is apprehended. The strikers have taken charge of the depots and now have the round-house and yards, where they are now under the control of the strikers.

This morning President Gould, General Manager Dickson, and other prominent officials of the road called upon Governor Ireland, and after a short conference with prominent citizens of the city, the following proclamation to the people was issued:

The Governor proceeded to set out to protect property and afford those with proceeding to the city to the proper authorities. As soon the Mayor ordered the Chief of Police to report to the Governor all cases arising in such and requested that all persons having property in charge of the railroad company should report to the officers. This order of Gov. Ireland, it is said, does not affect the strikers, who have no ill-feeling or grudge as they seem to feel concerning the differences of all railroad employees.

This evening Mayor Fulton received communications from the Gardner General Manager, in which he states that a number of well-known persons had formerly taken positions of the company's trains, yards, engines, etc., and have unhesitatingly identified with the Knights Lodge of the company, and nothing more. Mr. Hasen, on the chief of detectives of the road, for protecting from the strikers and violence on the part of the strikers, and certifying the Mayor that the company's property is in safe hands. LONDON, Aug. 27.—The Editor of THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE, in a note of the 20th instant, requests me to write a few lines to explain how the Irish Question and Repeal of the Union have come to be of such paramount importance as to overshadow all other questions, and to make it impossible for the Irish Members to attend to any business but that of Ireland. I am afraid that I cannot do this in a few lines, as the subject is a very large one, and I am not sufficiently acquainted with the views of the Irish Members to be able to explain their motives. I will, however, do my best to give a brief sketch of the history of the Irish Question, and of the causes which have led to the present state of affairs.

[illegible] I was born in London, and have lived there all my life, with the exception of a few years spent in the country, and a few months spent in Paris. My father was a Scotchman, but married an Irish lady, and was himself a great admirer of Ireland and the Irish people. He was a great friend of Thomas Moore, and was a member of the Literary Club founded by Dr. Johnson, and which numbered among its members Burke, Goldsmith, Sir Joshua Reynolds, Garrick, Boswell, Gibbon, Sheridan, Fox, Pitt, Windham, Lord Nugent, Bishop Percy, Malone, Langton, Bennet, Chamier, Hoole, Colman, Dr. Scott, Sir William Jones, Dr. Burney, Dr. Barnard, Sir Joseph Banks, Sir George Baker, Sir William Hamilton, Sir Charles Bunbury, Sir Thomas Spencer Wilson, Sir Thomas Bernard, Mr. Langton, Mr. Vesey, Mr. Thrale, Mr. Gibbon, Mr. Hoare, Mr. Metcalfe, Mr. Ellis, Mr. Steevens, Mr. Nicholls, Mr. Warton, Mr. Tyrwhitt, Mr. Strahan, Mr. Dyer
